Craig,

Based on the representations in your letter regarding the most appropriate pricing custodians, Plaintiffs accept your offer and confirm the parties are in agreement on custodians such that there are no "differed disputes" regarding custodians for purposes of complying with the November 23 deadline. Plaintiffs reserve all rights to revisit custodians as may be necessary or appropriate as discovery proceeds.

Have a good Thanksgiving!

Thanks,

Michelle

We'd like to meet tomorrow, if possible, to build in time to confirm any tentative agreements we're able to reach. Unfortunately, our schedules are difficult. Are you available at 4:30 tomorrow? If that doesn't work, early on Friday would be fine.

We'll do our best to get you our letter in advance of our meeting. We are still doing some due diligence regarding Plaintiffs' requests for pricing-related custodians.

Subject: RE: In re Pork Antitrust Litigation, No 18-cv-1776 (JRT/HB) -- HFC's RFP Responses

Craig and Emily,

Following up on our conversation earlier this week, below is a list of where we believe the parties left things.

Given the November 23 deadline to meet and confer on any remaining disputes concerning RFPs, custodians and non-custodial sources, please let us know your availability for a call next week.

RFP Negotiations

- The parties previously appeared to be at an impasse on the following RFPs, but agreed to discuss further next week: RFP Nos. 5, 14, 15, 22, and 33, and IPP RFPs No. 1 and 2.
- The parties had previously discussed potentially addressing the following RFPs via custodian discussions: RFP No. 7, 24, and 34.
- Plaintiffs will discuss IPP RFP No. 7 internally and be prepared to discuss further with Hormel during the next meet and confer.
- The parties still also need to further discuss the definition of Pork.

Deferred RFPs

- Certain RFPs were deferred pending the Court's resolution of the defendants' motions to dismiss. Now that the motions have been decided, the parties should discuss these deferred RFPs (See Doc. No. 233):
 - RFP Nos. 9, 12-13, 18, 28-30, and 35-39
 - IPP RFP Nos. 5-6

Global Issues

- Both sides previously described their positions in a Joint Letter at ECF No. 355 on the following issues: 1) Defendants' General Objections; 2) Production of Complete Work Calendars; 3) Production of Complete Telephone Records; and 4) Production of Documents Relating to Benchmark Services. Plaintiffs' positions on those global issues have not changed.

Custodians

- The last written communication between the parties on custodians was Plaintiffs' August 2, 2019 letter. Hormel stated it would further investigate various custodian issues discussed on the parties' meet and confer and respond in writing.
- During the meet and confer, Hormel offered to add the following as custodians: Mark Coffey, Glen Leitch (for the period he worked in supply chain and manufacturing), and Jim Snee (for the period he served as President and/or CEO).

Non-Custodial Sources

- We did not discuss this during our call, but are required to reach resolution or declare an impasse on non-custodial sources by November 23. Please provide a complete list of non-custodial sources Hormel intends to search.

Thanks,

Michelle

Michelle –

In light of the Court's decision and recognition that Defendants should not be subject to the burden of discovery at this point, we are not intending to proceed with the meet-and-confer call scheduled for this afternoon. If, after reviewing the decision, you believe there is something for us to discuss, please let me know.

Thanks, Craig

Dear Emily:

Thanks for your response. With respect to the RFPs, I'm generally available to meet and confer August 8 or 12. Please let me know if there are some times that work for you on one or both of those days and I will coordinate with counsel for the other plaintiff classes to find a time that will work for all. We are in receipt of your July 18 letter, which was sent in response to our July 1 letter regarding our prior meet-and-confer. We will be prepared to discuss issues raised in both letters on the upcoming meet-and-confer.

With respect to custodians, please let us know if there are some times that work for you on August 19 or 20 and we will find a time that works for all plaintiff classes to discuss custodians.

Regards,

Michelle

Subject: RE: In re Pork Antitrust Litigation, No 18-cv-1776 (JRT/HB) -- HFC's RFP Responses

Dear Michelle:

We are in receipt of your August 2 letter, which proposes that the parties meet and confer this week regarding Hormel Foods' initial objections and responses to Plaintiffs' RFPs and custodians.

We are open to scheduling a meet-and-confer call regarding RFPs later this week, but note that Plaintiffs have not yet responded to our July 18 letter (see attached). Because your August 2 letter raises a number of items which require additional investigation and input by our client and because of scheduling issues, we would propose scheduling a separate call regarding custodians during the week of August 19.

Please let us know Plaintiffs' availability for this week and the week of August 19.

Best,
Emily
